Looking for your next career step? How about joining an ambitious and forward-thinking school community that's on a mission to further develop all aspects of teaching and learning?

You can look forward to being part of a genuinely friendly and supportive working environment. Everyone here works together towards shared goals – and to make sure that our pupils' wellbeing and achievement are at the very heart of everything we do.

There are plenty of opportunities for training and development too. So, if you'd like to build your skills and progress with us, we'll help you to achieve your goals.

With continuing success over the last few years, the community trusts us to deliver an outstanding education. In turn, we're working to develop Lode Heath as a learning hub for everyone in that community.

Lode Heath School is a member of the Arden Multi-Academy Trust where we are committed in working together to help and enrich the experiences of all within the AMAT family; we have a clear vision to generate self-belief, self-worth, esteem and confidence in our young people who can then display the ambition and aspiration in achieving high educational outcomes.

We are looking for a self-motivated and reliable Science Technician to provide technical support for teaching staff whilst maintaining excellent standards of Health and Safety within the Science Department.
